OSU History

No one has put together a more celebrated wrestling career than John Smith, America's best wrestler/coach. Smith won six world championships from 1988-92, and is one of the winningest coaches at the most successful wrestling program in the country. He will try to accomplish something that only one other coach has accomplished in school history. Following the 1991 season, Joe Seay stepped down, paving the way for Smith to take over the reins. Smith led the Cowboys to a 7-0 season and an NCAA runner-up finish. The Cowboys were not eligible for the Big 8 Tournament that season, and were ineligible for postseason consideration in 1993 as well. In 1994, Oklahoma State's first full season back from NCAA sanctions, the Cowboys won the national championship. Smith has not looked back. In the time since he has taken over as head coach, his teams have won five NCAA wrestling team titles, in 1994 and 2003 through 2006.

Most recently, Smith led the Cowboys to their 10th Big 12 team title in 15 tries when the Pokes bested the field at the 2011 conference meet despite having five freshmen and a sophomore in the starting lineup. In addition to having the youngest lineup in the Big 12 in 2011, OSU won without the services of an injured returning All-American at the 2011 conference meet. Smith saw all 10 Cowboy starters earn berths into the 2011 NCAA Championships field, with Jordan Oliver leading the way by claiming the national title at 133 pounds. Teammates Clayton Foster (second at 197 pounds) and Jamal Parks (fifth at 149 pounds) joined Oliver as 2011 All-Americans.

Smith has a dual meet record of 311-46-6 and the 311 wins are an Oklahoma State record. Smith has successfully resuscitated the program from its darkest hour in the early 90s to the glory that it is experiencing now. John Smith has become synonymous with Oklahoma State wrestling. He is one of the most successful wrestlers and coaches in the program's history!

Oklahoma State's wrestling camp is committed to helping you become great! This camp will give you the opportunity to train the way you must train to become the best that you can be. Train side-by side with John Smith, the greatest wrestler in American history. This camp is for the wrestler who is looking to improve on the best and easiest way to get a takedown, to score off bottom, and different ways to ride from the top position.

OSU-NY Training Camp is technically a "commuter camp." There are no accommodations or food being served. However, we have already received commitments from programs across the state and neighboring states. That said, we have set up hotel accommodations to help those who want to make the journey in for this exclusive opportunity. This camp is designed to be the best of both worlds – learn and burn! Learn great techniques from perhaps the most technical program in the nation, OSU, and then prepare to scrap and scramble later in the day! Entire teams are also welcome to this very popular camp. You will get to compete and learn with the toughest wrestlers on the east coast. The camp emphasizes technique and live wrestling, but also finds time for some fun. If you are coming alone or with a team – no worries, we'll have a spot for you.

General Information

After you receive your deposit, each camper will be sent a confirmation e-mail that will tell you the exact location for registration. Please be sure to include an e-mail address. This will be our main source of communication. We will have as many staff members as possible at each camp.

Because of training schedules, we can't guarantee that everyone listed will be at every camp. Sessions fill up early, so get your applications in soon. We look forward to working with you this summer!
